

Participant Consent Form (Form B)

Title of the Project: As it is given in Form A (Application form).

Principal investigator (PI) of the project: As it is given in Form A.

PI contact info: email and phone.

Sources of funding for the study: As it is given in Form A.

Institutional support for the study: As it is given in Form A.

Project Purpose: (This section should be written for the participant as the audience. As such, please do not repeat the details given to the EC in Form A. Rather, consider what information is relevant for an informed approval to participate in this study from your participants' point of view. Please use language that is clear and understandable for the intended audience)

Process: (This section should be written for the participant as the audience. Please do not repeat details given in Form A. Rather, consider what information is relevant for an informed approval to participate in this study from your participants' point of view. Please use language that is clear and understandable for the intended audience. Please list and describe what are the activities, time commitment, and other relevant details that the participant will need to know about the study, including the types of data to be collected and stored).....

Privacy: (Please describe measures that will be taken in order to protect the privacy of participants and the data collected from each participant.).....

Voluntary participation: (Please inform participants that participation is voluntary. Also inform them that should they decide to cease participation in the study at any point during the lifetime of the project, they can do so without coercion or the risk of facing any negative consequences.)

I hereby confirm that I have read relevant details of (Project Title) research study and all my questions (if any) were answered by the researcher. I consent to participate in this study voluntarily.

First Name, Last Name

Date and Signature